Now that summer vacation for the school children is nearing its final days, there seems to be a lull in the activities of the parents. Several families, though, are still enjoying these last weeks in making trips around the countryside. Harold and Edythe Teach, off for a few days to Icehouse Canyon. Emile and Hulda Huskamp are venturing so far as Yellowstone for ten days. Hilda and Fred Tretzel, down Ensenada way. Jo Ann and Con Vandenberg were spectators at the races in Tijuana, also visiting Mexico for a week or ten days are George and Elene Behrendt. Chuck and Lucille Niemoeller will be at Idyllwild until Labor Day.

of enthusiasts of that particular sport.
 In the New Neighbors Department are Newton and Betsy Free of 410 Calle de Aragon. The Frees and their two daughters are formerly of Manhattan Beach. New neighbors in Seaside are Jack and Betty Mahon of 8436 Linda drive.
 A gala evening was Saturday night, Aug. 18 at the Hurford home. Occasion was a surprise birthday party for Dave, given by wife Dorothy. Guests who shared in the evening's fun were Pauline Doyle, Paul and Margaret Roetger, Jim and Lynn Shidler, Bud and Winni Mewborn, Cliff and Gwen Scioneau, Pierce and Pat Venable, Chuck and Elene McConnell, Betty and Jack Mahon.

We were sorry to hear about little Frank Reynolds, son of Robert and Betty Reynolds. In the midst of a vacation Frank was rushed to the hospital with appendicitis. He is home now and well on the road to recovery.

Monthly meeting of the Las Vecinas board was held on picturesque Laguna Beach. Due to the kind and thoughtful invitation of Mary Dorsett, members of the board spent a lovely day at the blue Pacific. Mary and family will remain in Laguna through the first week of September.

Many happy returns of the day are in order for Gary Sacks, who celebrated his third birthday with playmates Glenda Hall, Larry Kasper, Gail and Wally Daniels of San Pedro, and Mark and Jeffery Carpenter.

Welcome home to Bill Donovan, who has recently returned from an extended tour of duty in Korea. The happy smile that Ruth is wearing is due to the fact that Bill has been released from the Marine Corps and is home to stay.

Pat and Paul Seeseey are entertaining Paul's sister, Agnes Seeseey from New York. Over the holiday weekend Pat and Agnes will be taking in the sights of San Francisco, while Paul will be mountain climbing at Mt. Whitney with a group

Redondo Citizen Since 1888 Dies at Age 86

A resident of Redondo Beach since 1888, George Cate, 207 North Catalina avenue, was interred at Evergreen Cemetery, Los Angeles, last week.
 Cate, who was 86, served as the first city treasurer of Redondo Beach, a position which he held for nearly a quarter of a century. Later, he was elected Mayor, and served in that position for eight years.
 In 1895, he established the town's first Mortuary, which is still in operation today, under the ownership of Sherkey and Myers. Funeral services were conducted in the Sherkey and Myers Chapel.
 The Rev. C. T. Walberg of the Redondo Beach Congregational Church, presided. Survivors include Mrs. Mable Cate, wife, a step-daughter, Mrs. E. B. Jackson, and a nephew, Dr. Loren Sims, of Redondo, and three sisters.

Salvation Army Thrift Store To Open Here Next September 7

An extensive stock of completely reconditioned articles will be offered at low cost in the new Thrift Store which the Salvation Army is establishing in Torrance at 1610 Cabrillo avenue. The new store will be opened Friday, Sept. 7 according to Brigadier Hanson D. Gifford, Salvation Army area manager. The opening will be marked by ceremonies to be attended by Brigadier Gifford, his staff and civic officials. The store has been thoroughly redecorated and new fixtures are being installed. It contains approximately 2200 square feet of space. Proceeds from sales of articles will go to provide housing, food, lodging and financial assistance to men who are unable to find employment in private industry because of their handicaps, Brigadier Gifford said. The Salvation Army, a strict non-profit organization, this year is observing its 71st year of unbroken service to needy and handicapped persons. The Salvation Army leader revealed that in the past 12 months the Social Service Center which serves this area provided 235,000 hours of work therapy, 52,350 wholesome meals, 20,145 beds and substantial financial assistance. Articles offered for sale, which have been refurbished completely by handicapped men in Salvation Army workshops, include davenport and matching chairs, tiltbacks, rugs, dining room and bedroom sets, kitchen furniture, gas stoves, ice boxes, bed ding, dishes, floor lamps, books and magazines, tricycles and bicycles, electrical appliances, wearing apparel, shoes and bric-a-brac.
